Re: Lisa Liberi, et al., v. Orly Taitz, et al.,
Case Number: 10-3000
District Case No.:2-09 CV 01898-ECR

Dear Clerk

Once again I am compelled to write to you because of the unprofessional lies of a Member of your State Bar. I appear in Pro Se and respectfully ask that you docket my correspondence with you.

I do wish to join with Doctor Taitz in her motion for Appeal in this case. I ask that you dismiss this instantly due to fraud on the part of the plaintiffs. I also ask that you impose maximum sanctions, fees and costs against the Plaintiffs and Berg.

I sincerely apologize having to waste your time with all these letters, I feel compelled to write as Berg, quite erroneously, seems to assume that, if unanswered, there is implied agreement, or consent. Nothing could be further from the truth, indeed, the man is a proven liar and could never be trusted to act honestly and with integrity.

Sincerely Yours,
